Contents

1. Scenario 1: Part-M Operating Scheme	2
2. Scenario 2: Maintenance Plan Creation	3
3. Scenario 3: Logical Model Creation and its Transfer to Aircraft N	√aintenance
Program	4
4. Scenario 4: Work Package Creation and Completion	5

1. Scenario 1: Part-M Operating Scheme

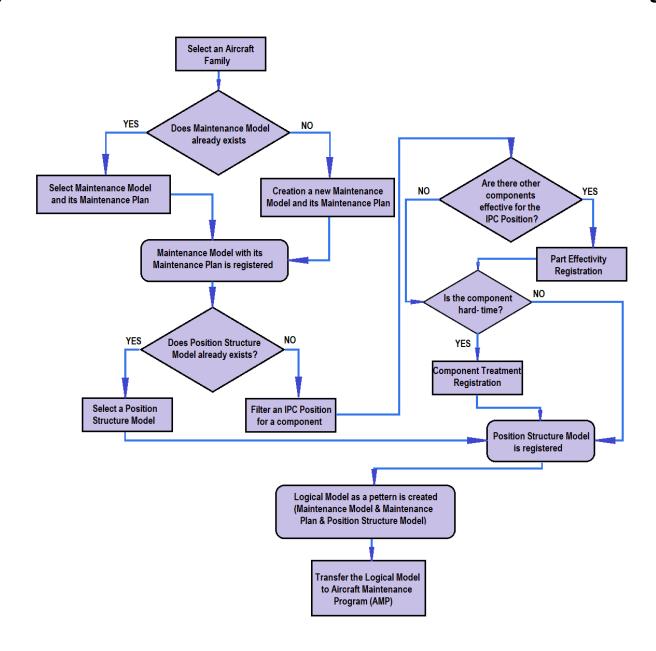

2. Scenario 2: Maintenance Plan Creation

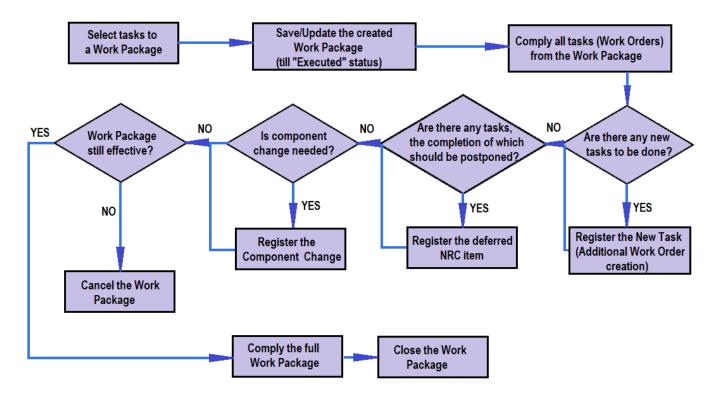

- 1.Task Effectivity Registration: reference to the Maintenance Plan (chapter I, part 'Task Effectivity')
- 2. MRB Registration: reference to the Maintenance Plan (chapter I, part 'MRB Category Codes')
- 3. Maintenance Requirements Registration: reference to the Maintenance Plan (chapter I, part 'Maintenance Requirements')
- 4. Checks Registrations: reference to the Maintenance Plan (chapter I, part 'Maintenance Model')
- 5. Tasks Distribution: reference to the Maintenance Plan (chapter I, part 'Maintenance Plan')

3. Scenario 3: Logical Model Creation and its Transfer to Aircraft Maintenance Program

4. Scenario 4: Work Package Creation and Completion

- 1. Select Tasks: reference to the Planning (chapter VIII, part 'Work Package Creation')
- 2.Save/ Update the WP: reference to the Planning (chapter VIII, part 'Work Package Creation')
- 3. Comply Tasks: reference to the Actual (chapter IX, part 'Actual Overview and Work Packages Completion')
- 4. New Task Registration: reference to the Actual (chapterIX, part 'Additional Work Order & Deferred Task Cards')
- 5. Deferred Task Registration: reference to the Actual (chapter IX, part 'Additional Work Order & Deferred Task Cards')
- 6. Cancel/ Comply/ Close the WP: reference to the Actual (chapter IX, part 'Actual Overview and Work Packages Completion'